Editor's Report

Thanks to Leonie with the help with last month's newsletter and also to Ian Palmer who has helped me reduce the size of photos. I also want to remind members that if you have any places, towns or showgrounds that you would like other members to visit please let me know. There will be a new link on the web page so members can see all the fabulous places that other members have visited so please take the time and have a look at it in the next week or so.

Please also remember that the Face Book page is only for TLC members.
