Christmas Lunch 12th December 2021 at the Doylo

The Doylo did us proud for our Christmas Lunch this year. 88 Members attended and it was lovely to catch up with other members, some of whom we had not seen for months. It was a real treat to have plenty of space and good acoustics, this made speaking to the others on the table a much easier process.

The round tables seated 8 and were set out with white tablecloth, full cutlery set and even white cloth serviettes. The bar was open in the auditorium, so we were able to access drinks pretty quickly. The decorations were low key and matched the Christmas tree. Very tasteful!

The food was good and served in a timely fashion. Roast meal and choice of 2 desserts, Christmas pudding and custard or pavlova.

Heard many looking forward to the relaxing of Covid Restrictions, little did we realise what was ahead. Now most of us will be hoping that family members remain well so our own Christmas celebrations can go ahead. There is a roaring trade in the Rapid Antigen Covid tests in most areas.

On the next page are a few photos from the Christmas Lunch.

As you can see we had heaps of room even with 88 Members present

Belmont 22 – 30th November 2021

Despite the rain we still had a lovely sun set at Belmont, thanks Susan and Graham for a great week, morning teas of scones, nights out for tea, cards, bingo with Newcastle caravan club joining in with the fun apart from one they won all the prizes this park is lovely plenty of room 2 camp kitchens good amenities would like to go back there when it is good weather....but you can't always get good weather and we still had a great week with fellow members of TLC.

Forgot the best thing about the week, our cruise on Lake Macquarie, we were blessed as we boarded the vessel it stopped raining, the sun even came out for a while. We cruised down the West side of the lake as far as Toronto then crossed over to Belmont side, enjoying a lovely BBQ lunch of steak, sausages, fresh prawns, salad and fresh rolls – followed by dessert of either cheesecake or mud cake. Tea and coffee were available all cruise. Took 2 ½ hours, was a fabulous day enjoyed by everyone.

Thanks to Susan for organizing the day.
