Social Director's Report

The trip which is on at the moment is Hartwood. We have had the Black Top River Run and Canberra which were both great.

Pam Wright & Jill Merrett are running a trip to Tuncurry for the Silver Schoolies so please contact them if you are interested.

Melbourne Cup will now be at North Haven as Junee didn't have the facilities we need for such an event.

Darlington Point have a number of sites including en-suite, cabins etc. There is an on-site restaurant which serves meals and we will possibly have our Christmas in July lunch there.

Helen advised that she has organised a day trip on The Riverboat Postman 12th May. If you are interested in attending please advise Fay or Helen so that your name can be added to the list. Also Helen has advised that if you are attending and you wish to use your Discovery voucher please contact them on 0400 600 111 and give them your voucher number and pay the difference as there could be a problem paying on the day with so many people attending.

UPCOMING RALLIES – 2022

General Business

Alan Howard advised that they had just returned from Mike Collins trip to Barrington Tops tag-a-long. This was a great experience with Mike and Leonie organising lunches etc.

Bev Shoobert explained that the midgies were really bad at North Haven and if anyone has any remedies please let everyone know.

Bev Shoobert advised that the club used to have a booklet with recipes in it that members of the club found worthwhile passing on. She has suggested that perhaps we should have a list of bakeries or hotels which have great cakes and pies. If you have any places of interest please pass them onto Fay.
